ONCE again the Senior Class presents to you the HICKORY LOG. It is our desire that this LOG will bind you closer to your classmates and teachers and help you to hold in your heart those memories of Hickory "Hi" that you should never forget.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the class of '40, started as all other classes start, as freshmen, just plain, ordinary freshmen. We had the usual freshman troubles of trying to find Mr. Cottrell's office and the proper stairway to use. Then there were things that we were supposed to learn in English, "math", or science, but those were secondary. It was much more embarrassing to arrive in English class when we were supposed to be in "math," than it was to fail a Latin vocabulary test. But finally we got through our first year with more fun, and incidentally more knowledge, than we had anticipated.

Having conquered the freshman year and risen from the lowly state in which all freshmen are placed, we became sophomores, and had someone to look down upon. That year we were able to join clubs and participate in more school activities than previously; these made us enjoy school life more.

Our Junior year brought harder work, but there were exciting goals to attain, especially the Junior-Senior. Not the least of our troubles was raising money for the Junior-Senior, and the fashion show will long be remembered as an effective and amusing way of helping to do so. The Junior-Senior more than measured up to our expectations, and we felt rewarded for our efforts. Then, too, there was the Twig to be issued, and we had as much to say about that as the seniors.

The dignified Senior found his year a full one. Juniors had to be shown how to publish the Twig; there was the LOG to be put out; we were to attend the Junior-Senior, as guests this time; and finally the climax of four years of work, graduation. A feeling of satisfaction for four years of successful effort is mingled with regrets on leaving our Alma Mater.

Our stay in this school has been helpful and pleasant, and we give our heartiest thanks to our teachers and our principal for making it so.

CHARLES MENZIES, Historian.

CARROLL BURNS, JR.

A very good-natured and obliging fellow to have around is Carroll.

Reserved and always willing, Mary Ann is admired by her classmates.

VIRGINIA KLASSETT CAMPBELL

Glee Club 3, 4; O. Henry Literary Society 3; Baton Club 2; Homeroom Representative 4.

It's always the teacher's task to place Virginia in the back of the room, 'cause if she's in front, the boys look at her instead of the teacher—and we don't blame 'em.

Football 2, 3, 4, 5; Monogram Club 3, 4, 5.

Ted is truly an athletic-minded boy. To him go many thanks for his part in an interesting game.

The primary aims of the Hickory High School Glee Club, since its organization almost ten years ago, are to create an appreciation of music and dramatics and to stimulate a public interest in high school activities. With the able help of Mrs. Vena Little Goode, its adviser, the club has achieved its purposes through numerous public appearances and especially through its annual operettas which are noted for the artistic performances given.

FOOTBALL RESUME

SEPTEMBER 22. HICKORY vs. SHELBY (Here).

The new uniformed Tornadoes scored an impressive 26-0 victory over Shelby, featuring the playing of Dobbins, Donkel, Gaines, and Gregory in the backfield, and Frye, Camp, Hay, Page, and D. C. Miller in the line. Joe Donkel went across for two of the tallies; Bobby Dobbins for the other two—the latter kicking the extra point twice. Hickory made 14 firstdowns while Shelby collected only 4. Substitutes were used freely.

SEPTEMBER 29. HICKORY vs. CONCORD (There).

Playing a hard-luck game in which two touchdowns were brought back and in which they collected 13 firstdowns to their opponents' 8, the Tornadoes lost to Concord, 19-7. Donkel scored on an end run and Dobbins converted; the Spiders crossed the goal line in the first three periods.

OCTOBER 6. HICKORY vs. CHILDREN'S HOME (Here).

Hickory's only touchdown came after Donkel intercepted an Orphans' pass and ran 34 yards to place the ball in position for Dobbins to pass to D. C. Miller, who lateraled to Donkel, who crossed into "pay dirt." Tornado passing was fairly successful with 9 out of 12 completions, but Templeton for Children's Home was too much power, scoring all 19 points for his team. Dobbins, Donkel, Lail, and Gregory played well in the backfield, while the entire line gave a good account of itself.

OCTOBER 13. HICKORY vs. LINCOLNTON (There).

Going on a rampage, Bobby Dobbins, powerful fullback, scored four touchdowns behind stellar line playing of Frye, Miller, Page, and Hay and nice blocking by Lutz and Gaines. Lutz made the initial score, and Dobbins' points came as a result of two linebucks, a pass, and a 30 yard runback of an intercepted Lincolnton pass. Lincolnton took advantage of heavy penalties, passed successfully, and scored their lone tally on an end run. Firstdowns: Hickory, 11; Lincolnton, 8.

OCTOBER 20. HICKORY vs. BARIUM SPRINGS (Here).

Relying on aerial attacks chiefly, these two evenly matched teams battled to a 12-12 tie. Hickory completed 14 out of 17 passes for a gain of 133 yards with Dobbins and Gregory "hurling" brilliantly and D. C. Miller receiving. Barium scored after a sustained drive; Gregory passed to Dobbins to even the count; Gaines fumbled with Barium recovering and scoring on a long pass; Dobbins' spectacular pass to D. C. Miller, who galloped for a tally, was called back; Donkel scored late in the fourth quarter and the conversion failed as the game ended. Lutz, Hay, Mitchell, Esle Miller starred in the line.

OCTOBER 26. HICKORY vs. LENOIR (There).

In possibly the most thrilling encounter of the year, the Tornadoes nosed out Lenoir, 10-7. With the score deadlocked, 7-7, as a result of passing attacks by both elevens in the last few minutes of play, Bobby Dobbins kicked a beautiful field goal from the fifteen yard line, which proved the margin of victory. Firstdowns, Hickory, 17; Lenoir, 3. Dobbins, Donkel, Lutz, Gregory starred in the backfield; Mitchell, Hay, D. C. Miller and Reed, in the line.

NOVEMBER 3. HICKORY vs. NEWTON (There).

Complete masters of their oldest rivals, the Tornadoes racked up a total of 28 points to 0 and 21 firstdowns to 4, against Newton. Dobbins passed to Donkel who carried the ball to the 5 yard stripe; on the next play Dobbins plunged over for 6 points and made the conversion. Lutz bucked the line for the second score, and in the fourth period, Gregory ran nicely for a touchdown, with Dobbins' kick good. The final tally came as a result of a pass from Gregory to Dobbins; the latter's conversion was good. Page, Hay, Donkel, Dobbins, and Lutz were outstanding offensively and defensively.

NOVEMBER 9. HICKORY vs. STATESVILLE (There).

Doped to win over the Greyhounds handily, Hickory met inspired opposition and though making 5 firstdowns to Statesville's 3, lost 6-0. Dobbins' punts averaged 40 yards, his opponent's 28. Page, Lutz, Dobbins, Hay, and Miller played well.

NOVEMBER 16. HICKORY vs. KANNAPOLIS (Here).

Before an unusually large crowd the Tornadoes played one of the best games of the season to overwhelm the Little Wonders 20-0. Scoring came first in the second quarter, with Dobbins crossing the goal line and kicking the extra point; in the third period when Dobbins passed to D. C. Miller for a touchdown and the extra point; in the fourth, with Gaines making a dash around end to score standing up. Firstdowns: Hickory, 13; Kannapolis, 3.

NOVEMBER 24. HICKORY vs. SPENCER (There).

Trailing at the half 13-0, after Kress for Spencer had recovered Donkel's fumble to score after a 55 yard run and then had received a pass to gallop 50 yards, the Tornadoes began a concentrated attack. Dobbins collected 6 points early in the third quarter, then passed to D. C. Miller for the second touchdown, and in the fourth period intercepted Spencer's pass on the 40 and ran for the final marker. Score, 19-13. Hickory made 11 firstdowns; Spencer, 5.

SCENE: Living-room in the home of Mrs. Carroll in Fern Lawn.

TIME: The present. Spring.

SYNOPSIS: The town gasps to see a pretty, nineteen-year-old girl in charge of the filling station. Inquiry reveals that she is Patricia Hammond. She is threatened with being driven out of town by the indignant townspeople. Never having been driven out of any town before, Patricia views the prospect with delighted enthusiasm. To Jimmy Clark is assigned the dismaying task of getting rid of her. To add to his troubles, Jimmy falls in love with the little nuisance. About this time the town is agog over the expected coming of the governor and his daughter. The big night arrives. Wild enthusiasm reigns as cheering throngs greet the distinguished guests. Then out of the car of honor, leaning on the governor's arm, steps the governor's daughter—Patricia!

Dear Sue,

Best Wishes and Good Luck is due you for helping make my past seven years of school life happy. Knowing you has really been a pleasure. Remember all of our good times at "dear old Green Park" and still better the ones at Hickory High. I feel that they would not have been so happy if it had not been for your happy smiles and friendly greetings.

Some of the happiest times were those after lunch when we were outside laughing and talking ~~go~~ together. Sue, I am sure that your pleasing personality, your bright smiles, and good character will get you ahead in the world and as you work hard to get ahead may all the luck, happiness, and success in the world flow abundantly while you strive ~~go~~ to attain this goal. Love always,
Frances

Hello!! Hello!!
I don't know how I am going to fill the
I had better start with our days in grammar school
grammar school together, I think we both enjoyed Winnie, I think you'll agree with me that Mrs. Abernathy was a grand teacher also. I almost when we had so, so much fun. Do you remember wasn't that just too much fun. In the four a grand time with her. Then we grew a little not seem to you like this, but I thought
had. The next year we graduated to the sixth grade alright. Then oh! how I did dread the days of going her one little bit. She gave me a two + one month one made. But those days are gone but I don't remember that day when Richard Shuford and n't forget. The play that we gave would it? No.
You were the nurse and I was Madam Truchini (so beautiful? No. I don't think it was. I must be have such a good time as I expected to. Well then I have five more minutes and I must school life. The freshman year wasn't so good was I glad to go to my sophomore year. I have than I did in grammar school. I really have Spanish class), and my English class too. You time. Winnie, I suppose you think I am Winnie we ~~are~~ certainly have missed you. I know you needn't worry about school anymore. Winnie simply lovely, and I would have sent you so that school is going out. You know I have take the place of flowers. Winnie, I have tried you need cheering up, but I thought it might be accomplished what I went after, because here said anything either. And this writing. Oh its terrible tell the truth I never have seemed to be able to somewhere about in the beginning of this writing
Well I didn't write all the rest in 15 min. I I suppose I'll have to dedicate the rest of the enjoyed your companionship for the last 5 or 6
a happy and truer friend as you. Winnie, be sure with much love, happiness

two pages up - but here I go. Winnie, I suppose ol. Although we didn't go ~~the~~ all the way through days we spent together then. At least I did.
Mrs. Howard was our best teacher then, although start crying when I think of those old days
the time when we went skating. I do. Boy, grade when Mrs. Howard came, we had such er and went into Miss Monroe's room. It may was the most (groughest) teacher I have ever and had Mrs. Abernathy as a ~~tea~~ teacher. She was to Miss Adair's class, now Mrs. Tilley. I didn't like because I talked to "Dea" too much and did that man otten. Then came the time to graduate. I can re.
I sang a duet. Was I scared or was I not. I would thought that fear was: "I am cut". I'll never forget that however you spell it). Wasn't that song I sang just out the seventh grade class party. Although I didn't can't be helped now.

Worry. I suppose I'll have to start with high but I suppose I could stand to live it over again.
really enjoyed this year so much, even more enjoyed all my teachers and classes (especially my could have been in that class, we really had a going to say anything about you being sick, but you miss school too, but now school is almost, and I think those flowers in your room are just myself, but I am running low on money now.
ainly enjoyed coming to see you so, maybe that can write you this to cheer you up a little, not that on a little good, but I don't think I have
